

Appendix A—Digest of Other White House Announcements

The following list includes the President's public schedule and other items of general interest announced by the Office of the Press Secretary and not included elsewhere in this book.

August 2

In the morning, the President traveled from Camp David, MD, to Andrews Air Force Base and on to Chicago, IL, where he held a telephone interview with radio station WGN-AM. He then traveled to Rosemont and Elk Grove, IL, and returned to Washington, DC, in the late afternoon.

August 3

In the morning, the President traveled to Dalton, GA, where he attended a Georgia Victory '92 leadership meeting at the Multitex Corp. The President then traveled to Jacksonville, FL. In the afternoon, he attended a Victory '92 reception at the Omni Hotel in Jacksonville and then returned to Washington, DC.

The President selected the following individuals to represent him at the 50th anniversary commemoration of the U.S. landings on the Island of Guadalcanal, August 7–8:

Head of Delegation:

Gen. Raymond Davis, of Georgia.

Delegates:

Leo Nadeau, of California.

Jack Guy, of Georgia.

August 4

In the morning, the President met at the White House with:

- domestic advisers;
- the Vice President; Samuel K. Skinner, Chief of Staff to the President; Brent Scowcroft, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs; and members of the CIA briefing staff;
- leaders of veterans service organizations.

The President then met with the Senate Republican conference at the Capitol.

In the afternoon, the President met at the White House with:

- the Vice President, for lunch;
- members of the House of Representatives;
- Samuel K. Skinner.

The President declared a major disaster existed in the State of Ohio and ordered Federal aid to supplement State and local recovery efforts in the area struck by severe storms, tornadoes, and flooding that began on July 12.

August 5

In the morning, the President met at the White House with domestic advisers. He then traveled to New York City, where he met with John Cardinal O'Connor at the Marriott Marquis Hotel.

In the afternoon, the President traveled to Reno, NV, where he attended a Victory '92 leadership meeting at the Cannon International Airport.

In the evening, the President traveled to Colorado Springs, CO.

August 6

In the morning, the President addressed the Colorado Republican State leadership at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs. The President then held a telephone interview with radio station KOA-AM at the Broadmoor Hotel International Center. Later in the morning, the President held a radio interview with James Dobson at the Focus on the Family Building and then returned to Washington, DC.

August 7

In the morning, the President met at the White House with:

- domestic advisers;
- the Vice President; Samuel K. Skinner, Chief of Staff to the President; Brent Scowcroft, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs; and members of the CIA briefing staff.

In the afternoon, the President met at the White House with:

- energy and natural resources industry leaders;
- agricultural industry leaders.

Later, the President traveled to Kennebunkport, ME.

August 8

In Kennebunkport, ME, the President met in the afternoon with Deputy U.S. Permanent Representative to the United Nations Alexander Watson, Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney, Deputy Secretary of State Lawrence S. Eagleburger, and Assistant to the President for Nation-